Business meetings with a touch of nature

Whether you wish to impress your business partners with an impeccable conference or organise an inspiring meeting with associates outside your office, the island of Lošinj should be your destination of choice. Good connection with the mainland makes it easily accessible, while the seclusion from the urban hustle, the vegetation, and the healing aromas of nature offer a perfect setting for effective business meetings or team building throughout the year.

Embraced by an age-old pine forest, close to the sea, Lošinj Hotels & Villas Group offers exclusive hotels and villas with modern conference halls of various capacity, beautiful terraces and restaurants where you can relax during your coffee or lunch break. A professional team with ample experience in organising various events – from board meetings to demanding corporate events – offers impeccable, personalised support, bringing creative business solutions and results within your grasp.

Your stay on the island of Lošinj should also include pleasant moments, such as a sublime gourmet selection of dishes prepared from local ingredients of the highest quality; tours or sports activities in the beautiful setting of Lošinj's fragrant nature; but also relaxation at spa oases tailored to urban guests who wish to effectively de-stress, bring balance to their body and spirit, and bring home the pure and natural energy of Lošinj. We made sure you have absolutely everything you need for a successful business meeting here on the island of Lošinj. Together with high quality service. And with a unique touch of nature.

Hotel Aurora / Hotel Vespera

If you are planning a relaxed business meeting for a smaller number of people or a professionally organised conference, the Aurora and Vespera hotels, situated in the green setting of Sunny Bay, right next to the sea, offer an ideal solution.

For a number of years, Sunny Bay has been an ideal destination for all those who prefer to mix business with pleasure and use business meetings for team building. Apart from the crystal clear sea, there are sports courts and the island promenade near the hotel, ideal for group competitions or individual sports activities like jogging, cycling or trekking.

If you want your team to enjoy high quality relaxation, the hotel Aurora's SPA offers whirlpools, an indoor heated seawater pool, and a series of treatments designed in accordance with the healing properties of aromatic and curative herbs of the island of Lošinj, with the goal of balancing the mind and body of the modern man, who is constantly exposed to stress.

Useful information

When selecting the destination for a business meeting or a conference, excellent connectivity of the island of Lošinj with the mainland is one of many advantages that should be taken into account. The distance of only 225 kilometres from Zagreb, 225 from Ljubljana, and 180 kilometres from Trieste ensures quick transport to the island of Lošinj and its inspiring, green, relaxing and historically rich setting.

Feel free to contact us if you wish us to organise your transport to the island of Lošinj, since our fleet consists of various aircrafts, motor vehicles and vessels, ensuring fast and safe transport.

We have two aircrafts at your disposal, a Cessna and a Piper, which can take up to three passengers, and a Beechcraft King Air C90B that can take up to six passengers. Transportation may be arranged from any airport in Europe, while in Lošinj you will have a limousine at your disposal for transport to the hotel, and to the airport, after your stay. Additionally, we offer road transport by a luxury minivan, which can take up to eight passengers, or buses for thirty or more passengers. You may also arrive to the island of Lošinj via the sea, and for this we offer two types of vessels – a speedboat or a motor yacht, and both of these can take up to eight passengers.

Transportation is available upon request. However availability may depend on previous scheduling.
