Your stay on the island of Lošinj should also include pleasant moments, such as a sublime gourmet selection of dishes prepared from local ingredients of the highest quality; tours or sports activities in the beautiful setting of Lošinj's fragrant nature; but also relaxation at spa oases tailored to urban guests who wish to effectively de-stress, bring balance to their body and spirit, and bring home the pure and natural energy of Lošinj. We made sure you have absolutely everything you need for a successful business meeting here on the island of Lošinj. Together with high quality service. And with a unique touch of nature.

At the beginning of the 20th century, Čikat Bay was a favourite destination of the Viennese aristocracy, and today it is visited by all of those who want to enjoy in true relaxation, perfect comfort, an exclusive gourmet selection, and the island's peace and quiet. By adding the benefits that Lošinj's fragrant nature has on your health, Čikat Bay truly is a unique place of luxury.
